

Baannok Bangkok's Tour at Black Thai – The Authentic Taste of Thailand in Moscow

On April 23 and 24, Black Thai restaurant, with the support of the Office of Commercial Affairs, Royal Thai Embassy in Moscow, welcomes Baannok Bangkok, a famous Thai restaurant from Bangkok, which has been included in the Michelin Guide, to provide unforgettable experiences of authentic Thai dishes in the heart of Moscow city.

Baannok Bangkok is a prominent player on Bangkok's restaurant scene and has been recognized by the Michelin Guide since late last year. The restaurant is part of the esteemed Nara group which have been in the F&B business for over twenty years with 56 outlets in Asia. Korat is a city in the northeastern part of the Kingdom of Thailand, and the region's cuisine is more complex and interesting than what tourists and expats usually know about Thai gastronomy. The flavors are bolder, and the spices more aromatic. The team of chefs & food stylists from Baannok Bangkok is flying to Moscow, bringing full sets of authentic Thai tastes and traditional food styles to create unforgettable experience. They will amaze, delight, and serve dishes that Muscovites have never tried before!

On April 23 and 24, Black Thai restaurant will host two dinners, each featuring six courses. Chef Artem Martirosov will kick off the program with a Green Mango salad prepared in a trendy style and dusted with pink pitahaya powder. This will be followed by a complete immersion into the authentic flavors of Thailand. Chefs of Honor, Mr. Poomipan, Ms. Wiboonrat, and Mr. Watchara will present four authentic Thai dishes covering Tao Jiew Lohn with crab meat, stir-fry Pad Woonsen, aromatic Beef Massaman Curry, and Tom Sapp with shrimp. Ending the night is a very instagramable dessert curated by Black Thai, Purple mochi in coconut milk.

The six-course dinner is priced at 5,500 rubles per person. The event begins at 7:00 PM.

Black Thai is currently the only restaurant in Russia awarded with Thai SELECT, the certification of Thai restaurants provided by Ministry of Commerce of Thailand. The tour of Baannok Bangkok is organized with the support of the Office of Commercial Affairs, Royal Thai Embassy in Moscow.
